

A photograph of Karen Gaffney, a woman with short blonde hair and glasses, wearing a dark top and a necklace. She is standing behind a dark podium, gesturing with her hands as if speaking. The background is a blue and red gradient.

“Every life has value.
Every life matters.
Regardless of the amount of chromosomes that you have.”

Karen Gaffney

Disability Rights Advocate &
Special Olympics Gold Medalist

Have your say and win €300!

We are looking for a well-researched and principled discussion on the right to life, inspired by the quotation above. Share your critical thinking with us in a 600 - 750 word essay and you could win!

Competition open to students from Transition Year to 6th Year (Republic of Ireland) and Year 12 to 14 (Northern Ireland).

1st Prize: €300/£260 2nd:€150/£125 3rd: €75/£65 Runner up: €50/£45
Please submit entries as a Word document by email to info@life-works.ie by Friday 29th April 2022. For more information visit www.lifeworks.ie

Life Advocate
Awards
2022